

The Kids with Arthritis Branch of Arthritis NSW invites your family to attend

Camp Twinkletoes 2009
At Crusaders Galston Gorge
Conference & Recreation Centre, NSW
Friday 27 February '09 (6pm start) to
Sunday 1 March '09 (3pm close)

Camp Twinkletoes is open to all families who have a child aged under 8 suffering with JIA, or for families with newly diagnosed child, or families with a child not quite ready to attend Camp Footloose.

All meals are included and the KiWA committee have organised a range of JIA info sessions for adults and craft & sport activities for the kids. There is a range of lodge accommodation available, accommodating 3 to 7 people. Most lodges have a private ensuite. BYO linen/sleeping bag and towels.

Price per person for the weekend, including all meals and accommodation:

Adults & children 12 and over: $118
Children 5-12: $97
Children under 5: Free

The branches of AFNSW have been fundraising to assist families to attend CTT09 and are offering up to $350 per family for sponsorship. Confidential financial assistance is also available for special circumstances. Please contact the Treasurer, Alex Roache at airoache@tpg.com.au for more information.

If your family would like to attend Camp Twinkletoes 2009,
RSVP before 30 January 2009.

To secure your place, we also require a $50 per family deposit.

To attend Camp Twinkletoes, you must be a financial member of AFNSW—family rates are as low as $25 per family if you have a health care card.

To RSVP, or for more information, please contact Arthritis NSW:
